Grow one step in 2011

In the dictionary a “steward” is defined as someone who manages and cares for property belonging to someone else. When we view this definition from the standpoint of our Christian faith stewardship is how we use and manage everything God provides – our time, our talents and our material treasure.

We are called to be good stewards of these blessings by supporting the mission of God’s church to touch people’s lives with the healing of God’s love and mercy in Jesus Christ.

Therefore, giving is fundamental to Christian faith. It grows and is led by God like all other parts of our Christian walk. The biblical standard is the tithe or 10% of one’s income. Building to this level and beyond is a natural progression of a growing faith.

In this spirit the Finance Committee is asking everyone to consider Growing their stewardship by One Step in 2011. If you are currently giving 2% of your income to God, Growing by one step would mean stepping up to 3% of your income in the New Year. Or, stepping up from 3% to 4% of one’s income, or from 4% to 5% and so on. In this way we can all grow closer to reaching the goal of a full tithe.

Trusting in God to work in everyone’s heart we thank you for all your past support. With God’s leading let us commit together To Grow by One Step in support of the mission of Christ through Sherman United Methodist Church in the New Year.

Worship Change

On January 9 of the New Year we will start differentiating between the two Sunday morning worship services. The 8:15 service will continue as a blended service with both contemporary and traditional music. The Praise Team at 8:15 may not be as large as it is currently. The organ and piano will be the main musical instruments.

The 10:45 service will become a Contemporary service with music led by the Praise Team. The praise band will be the main instrument.

Scripture, sermon sacraments, prayers, reception of new members will be offered in both services. The goal of this change is to provide a different kind of worship experience that many find helps them to connect with God.

NEW COVENANT AGREEMENTS: KIDS PLACE, CAMP SONSHINE, SUMC PRESCHOOL

Earlier this past fall the Administrative Council appointed a special committee to study and develop a written covenant for the Children’s Ministries that operate on week days at Sherman United Methodist Church. This includes Kids Place, Camp Sonshine and the SUMC Preschool.

The United Methodist Church recommends a covenant agreement for such week day ministries like we have in order to show: 1) how they are part of the overall mission of the church “to make disciples for Jesus Christ”; and 2) to show the structure of accountability for the ministries.

The task force presented a draft of the Covenant to the Administrative Council at its last meeting on Dec. 8, 2010 and it was approved. Copies of the Covenant will soon be available for the congregation at large. The Covenant includes the following areas:

- 1) Statement on how Kids Place, Camp Sonshine and the SUMC Preschool are part of the overall mission of the church;
- 2) A brief purpose statement for each ministry;
- 3) Responsibilities of the boards that oversee these ministries;
- 4) Mutual commitments of the ministries and the church to one another;
- 5) Policies on payroll, minimum balance, funds management and financial controls;
- 6) The role of the Finance, Christian Education, Trustees and Staff -Parish Relations Committees and the Pastor in relation to the week day ministries;
- 7) A procedure to modify the Covenant as needed in the future.

As the committee worked on developing the new covenant it was noted that the children’s ministries of SUMC make many contributions to the church in terms of generating new family members and helping with many maintenance projects and enhancements that have benefited both the ministries and the church. At the same time a portion of our weekly contributions to the General Fund in Sunday worship helps support some of the operating costs of the children’s ministries (property insurance, gas-electric, maintenance). Thus, the relationship between church and weekday ministries is one of mutual responsibilities and commitments. The new Covenant Agreement outlines how this relationship will continue to help Sherman United Methodist Church fulfill its mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ.

Grace and Peace,
Pastor Mike

ANNOUNCEMENTS

All of a sudden there were loud growls coming from the bushes and Dorthy skitted away from the danger. Just then Lion appeared from the green ball of bush. “Sign’em up , sign’em up!” growled the Lion in the most terrifying voice he could muster.

“Sign up who, Lion?” asked Dorthy.

“Sign up the Miller’s, sign up the Smith’s, sign up the Blake’s. Everyone else will take care of all the service work that needs to be done at SUMC.”

“Why Lion, you’re just a little pussy cat-you won’t even do a lion’s share of the work at SUMC?” questioned Dorthy.

“ Aw, shucks Dorthy! I need cccourage before I could help serve at SUMC. Everyone else has great gifts to help and I just don’t think I am needed,” replied the Lion sadly.

“Well, that’s just not true Lion. We need to do something about this.” said Dorthy.

All of a sudden a voice was heard by all involved. The voice of the beautiful Holy Spirit. “Dorthy, you and your friends need help if SUMC is to accomplish its mission of FOLLOWING JESUS AND INVITING OTHERS TO JOIN US. The father above knows what you need because, “he will perfect that which concerneth you” so just get down on your knees, open God’s word, and pray...”there’s no word like God’s, there’s no word like Gods.”

So Dorthy got down on her knees and began to pray. “There’s no word like God’s, there’s no word like Gods” and then she began to read the Bible. “Wow, look scarecrow God’s word says...”Trust in the lord and lean not on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him and he will make your paths straight... You see scarecrow, you don’t need a degree to teach at Sunday School, you just have to trust God and he will help and guide you to use the gifts he’s given you. I know that the curriculum that Sunday School uses is already there. You don’t have to reinvent the wheel to help teach a Sunday School class.”

Dorthy turned to the Tinman and said, “God will give you all the oil you need to keep you going. Listen to this, “ I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus. All of us who are MATURE should take such a view of things” You see you are never too old or too busy to do God’s work. All of our lives we have to keep oiling ourselves and others with God’s love.”

Finally Dorthy turned to the Lion. “Listen Lion,” said Dorthy. “The Lord says, “ be strong and courageous and DO the work. It is one thing to be a hearer of God’s words, but you also need to be a doer. You see Lion, we need lots of courageous people to volunteer and serve at SUMC and you can be one of them.”

Scarecrow, Tinman, and Lion all looked at each other and then looked back at Dorthy. “Sign us up” they all agreed.

Scarecrow, Tinman, Lion, and Dorthy all signed up to help use their time and talents that day to help SUMC’s mission to FOLLOW JESUS AND INVITE OTHERS TO JOIN US. It was their “AHA” moment in following their own yellow brick road journey. Won’t you join them on their journey this year too?

January 16—Special Offering

It is found that children of incarcerated parents too often follow in their parents' footsteps. A program called United Methodist Church Redemption Kids Ministries, in Oklahoma was developed to reach out to troubled youth. "Your gifts to Human Relations Day provide avenues to restored relationships through ministries like Redemption Kids, a Youth Offender Rehabilitation Program; Community Developers, self-improvement programs; and United Methodist Voluntary Services, community advocacy that challenges oppression and injustice." Please give generously to the Human Relations Day Offering on Jan. 16. Through our support we enable lives to be changed in constructive ways in the name of Christ. Thank you!

Dear Friends,
 Contact Ministries would like to extend a heartfelt thank you and recognize you for your recent financial donation throughout this past holiday season.
 Each year our agency serves thousands of individuals and families in need. Therefore, it is a true blessing when others within our society considerately support our efforts.
 Contact Ministries appreciates your thoughtfulness and generosity. Please be assured that your charitable actions have benefited the less fortunate in your community.
 Thank you and have a Blessed New Year,
 The Staff and Board of Contact Ministries

they shared about the kindness they saw him show toward others. Alan's life was so difficult, but this sharing was very comforting for me to hear about, because I didn't know that Alan showed this to many people. The realization that Alan died hit when I returned to Mongolia and was asked to fill out an application which requested my brothers and sisters names. There was another big hole in our family - father, mother, and now my oldest brother has died. I am sure you can relate to this loss. Now, with Christmastime I keep wanting to hear the song, "O Holy Night," which Alan played so well on the trumpet and later on the baritone. It makes me feel closer to him to hear this song.

In November, my friend Grace and I went to China for ten days, visiting Shenyang where I was asked to give help to some doctors who wished to start a hospice program; Changchun, where Grace was asked to share with some young doctors and one congregation about work in the community in Mongolia, and then to Harbin and Beijing for a vacation. While in Shenyang we visited a nursing home, an HIV support center and met volunteers with both of those programs.

❖ We attended two churches in Changchun and they were both very welcoming, although originally we heard that we as foreigners would not be welcome for fear of some negative repercussions. That did not seem to be true. My impression was that religious oppression is not so great nowadays. Apparently there is some fear that we would cause some anti-Chinese government sentiment. We visited four bookshops, owned by our host friend, which sell Christian books, coffee, and gifts and which have space for various meetings in which religion can openly be mentioned. We did our presentations to some doctors in the back room of one coffee shop. Another time there was a lively English lesson being attended by many young adults

❖ Beijing had green grass, trees and roses in bloom, which was quite a contrast to Harbin, which was VERY cold. The cold didn't stop people from dancing in the street in the evening in the downtown Harbin. We saw that as we were eagerly headed toward a Russian tea shop for something HOT to drink. No dancing outside for us!

❖ Advent:
 Christmas cookies, a staff Christmas party (45 people this year), presents, mass mailing, and decorating are some of the joys of the season. One joy especially is being able to share the meaning of Christmas and some customs with others. Today, I took a nativity set to work and placed it on the conference table and our two new doctors asked what it was. They had no idea about this decoration, but the "old" staff knew well after a few years of exposure to such things.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Inner Thoughts from Outer Mongolia

Helen Sheperd, CPO Box 1242, Ulaanbaatar13, Mongolia

December 2010

Dear Friends,

Again, greetings to you from Outer Mongolia! May this Advent season create in your hearts a special joy as you await the birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ. As our world continues not to be filled with peace, may each one of us continue to be focused on being agents of peace starting with our own hearts and lives.

May the Year 2011 be filled with joy, hope, love, and peace as you seek to know God's will for you, and share the Good News with those whom you meet.

Update on "GBGM of Mongolia" Mission:

❖ This year we have added three congregations to the UMC mission and all of them are outside of Ulaanbaatar, anywhere from 1-6 hours away from here. This has been exciting especially for the pastors, but I have, also, noticed lots of joy in the congregations which sponsor these new branch-churches. Please pray for these developing congregations. Only one of them has a Bible school trained pastor.

❖ There are children's programs this fall at both Tsaiz and Chingeltei Centers. The one at Chingeltei is for 3 hours each weekday. The children, kindergarten aged, happily come in to learn and play under the supervision of a young teacher and helper. They have a hearty snack prepared by our Mission Center cook.

❖ One class we hope to begin soon for young people from both Chingeltei and Tsaiz Centers is lessons on the morin khuur, the horsehead fiddle, which is our well-known traditional 2- stringed instrument. This class has been made possible by the donations of two retired GBGM staff.

□ Grace Hospice:

We have definitely felt God's presence in Grace Hospice as we had to face some problems and make some changes which were extremely painful. The dismissal of two doctors because of conflicts led to the hiring of two brand new doctors. What a risk, but certainly worth it! Our team is now working well together!!! Thank you for your prayers and please keep praying that things will continue in this way. When I returned from 10 days in China, the team was happy to show me how well they could do without me. AND, they even jokingly told me I could leave again as the patient census had increased so much in ten days and NO ONE had died in that 10 day period. Praise God!

❖ Blessings in 2010:

Blessings of this year have been the donations which have been given to keep us operational. We are still struggling, but we survived last winter and will plan to do the same this next year thanks to your generous donations. (Our heating in the new Center is what costs us so dearly!) Along with this financial support, we have also received letters of encouragement and prayers which have been so important in supporting us as well. Thanks to each one of you.

Another two blessings have been Holli Vining and Erin Eidenshink, our young mission interns, sent here by GBGM to serve for 1 1/2 years. What a difference two bright, energetic, full of faith women can make in a mission's programs. Their hugs, when touching often is in the form of hitting in Mongolia, their flexibility and eagerness to teach English and give encouragement to young people, as well as adults and the elderly, have made a huge difference. But, there is a downside to their coming! That is that they will be leaving the first week of March!!!!!! We give thanks for their service as they felt called to "mission." AND, we hurt as we prepare to say goodbye! They are preparing themselves for leaving, but that will be painful for them, too. Still another two blessings, are the new baby for our Tsaiz UMC pastor and his wife- Dongmin Seo and Hyeyun Hong. She was born today, 12/14. They already have two daughters. And, also, Oyuntuul, a Grace Hospice nurse, is expecting a baby in the spring. We give thanks for these new lives in our mission family.

Finally, I want to mention the blessing of Batkhuu being alive for another year. Batkhuu, our former accountant is at home and is doing quite well. I visited him last week and was glad to know that his reliance on God and witnessing about God's love has not ceased. He requests strong prayers that God will make a way for him to have some very expensive medication. There are many problems associated with it, besides the fact that it costs $1,000/day, which he does not have. Free treatment may be available, but only for a short time. Batkhuu really wants to live and is so hopeful that there may be a way for this treatment to become a reality. Please add him to your prayer list.

Personal News:

❖ In October I was in Michigan to celebrate the life of my brother Alan with my other brother and sister, nieces and nephews and their children. Losing a family member is so painful, but Alan's life was remembered by many as

Kid's Place News

Kids Place wishes everyone a Happy New Year as we get off to a great start for 2011! Looking forward, we see God has great plans for us this year. The children will begin a new long term project, "A Travel Guide to the 23rd Psalm". Each week the kids will go on an "adventure" and learn a portion of the 23rd Psalm. By the time we are done in March, the kids will know the all the verses and understand what they mean.

We are blessed to again have Danny Motta lead us in song every Tuesday, so that we can make a joyful noise to the Lord. YES, there is a lot of noise on Tuesdays!! The 5th graders will continue to make new friends through their adopt a shut in outreach. We also look forward to more mission opportunities and projects as we approach spring. It's going to be a great year!

Now that Christmas has ended and you may be working on cleaning out your closets, toy chests, etc., please think of us. We will always gladly accept gently used toys. We are especially low on Barbie dolls and small cars/trucks. If you have something to donate, please leave it at the desk in the fellowship hall. If we can't use what you brought us, we will make sure it gets to someone who can. We thank you in advance for your generosity. Speaking of generosity, we are still anxiously awaiting word of where some of our shoe boxes for Operation Shoe box have shipped. We tagged 40 boxes this year so it will be exciting to see where they all went. We will keep you all posted when we get more info.

God Bless!

COULD 2011 BE YOUR "AHA" MOMENT?

God, The wonderful Father of "Aha's": Written by Carmen Arnberger

"Toto, I don't think we're in Sherman anymore," said Dorthy. "I announced that we would be needing volunteers at church and everyone opened their planners and disappeared in a whirlwind of excuses. I just don't know how we'll put together a VBS for our munchkins, or organize an evangelism project for those flying monkeys." Dorthy walked a few steps before something caught her attention. "Oh look, there's a scarecrow. Let's ask him if he'd like to volunteer. Scarecrow, would you like to help with a church project this year? Maybe you would like to teach the children Sunday School?"

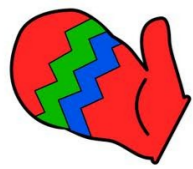

"Why certainly, if I only had a brain," said the scarecrow. "You see (knock on head) ...empty! How can I help teach if I don't even have a degree. I've never ever helped with Sunday School and I just don't think I'd know what to do."

Dorthy replied, "Oh, I see. Well, thank you anyway." Dorthy walked down the yellow brick road a little further until she almost walked into the tin man. "How about you tin man? You look smart. Would you help me by being a volunteer at VBS this year or maybe working a chicken dinner?"

The tin man turned to Dorthy and said "Oh Dorthy... I'm so rusty, it's been while since I've worked with kids. My kids are all grown and I've already put in my time. My joints are stiff and I just don't know where to fit more church service into my schedule."

"Well, thanks anyway tin man," Dorthy replied in an exasperated and defeated tone. "Isn't there anyone who will volunteer their time and talent to SUMC this year? Toto, what will we do?"
